What Did You Do At School Today?

What did you do at school today? How many times have you asked that question and got the reply "nothing"? A useful way for students to reflect on their learning experiences at school is to ask them the following questions.

- What's going well at school?
- Which was the hardest part of your day?
- How did you deal with it?
- How else could you have done it?
- What could you do when you are stuck on new learning?
- What would have made that easier for you?
- What mistakes did you make that you can learn from?
- Is there anything else you know that might help?
- How could you help someone else with their learning?
- How did it feel when you had finished?

Term 3 Dates

- Swimming – Weeks 1 to 5 (check with your child's teachers when they are swimming)
- Daffodil Day Mufti Day (wear yellow and gold coin donation) – Week 6, Friday 28 August

Silverdale School Proposed Enrolment Scheme Amendment

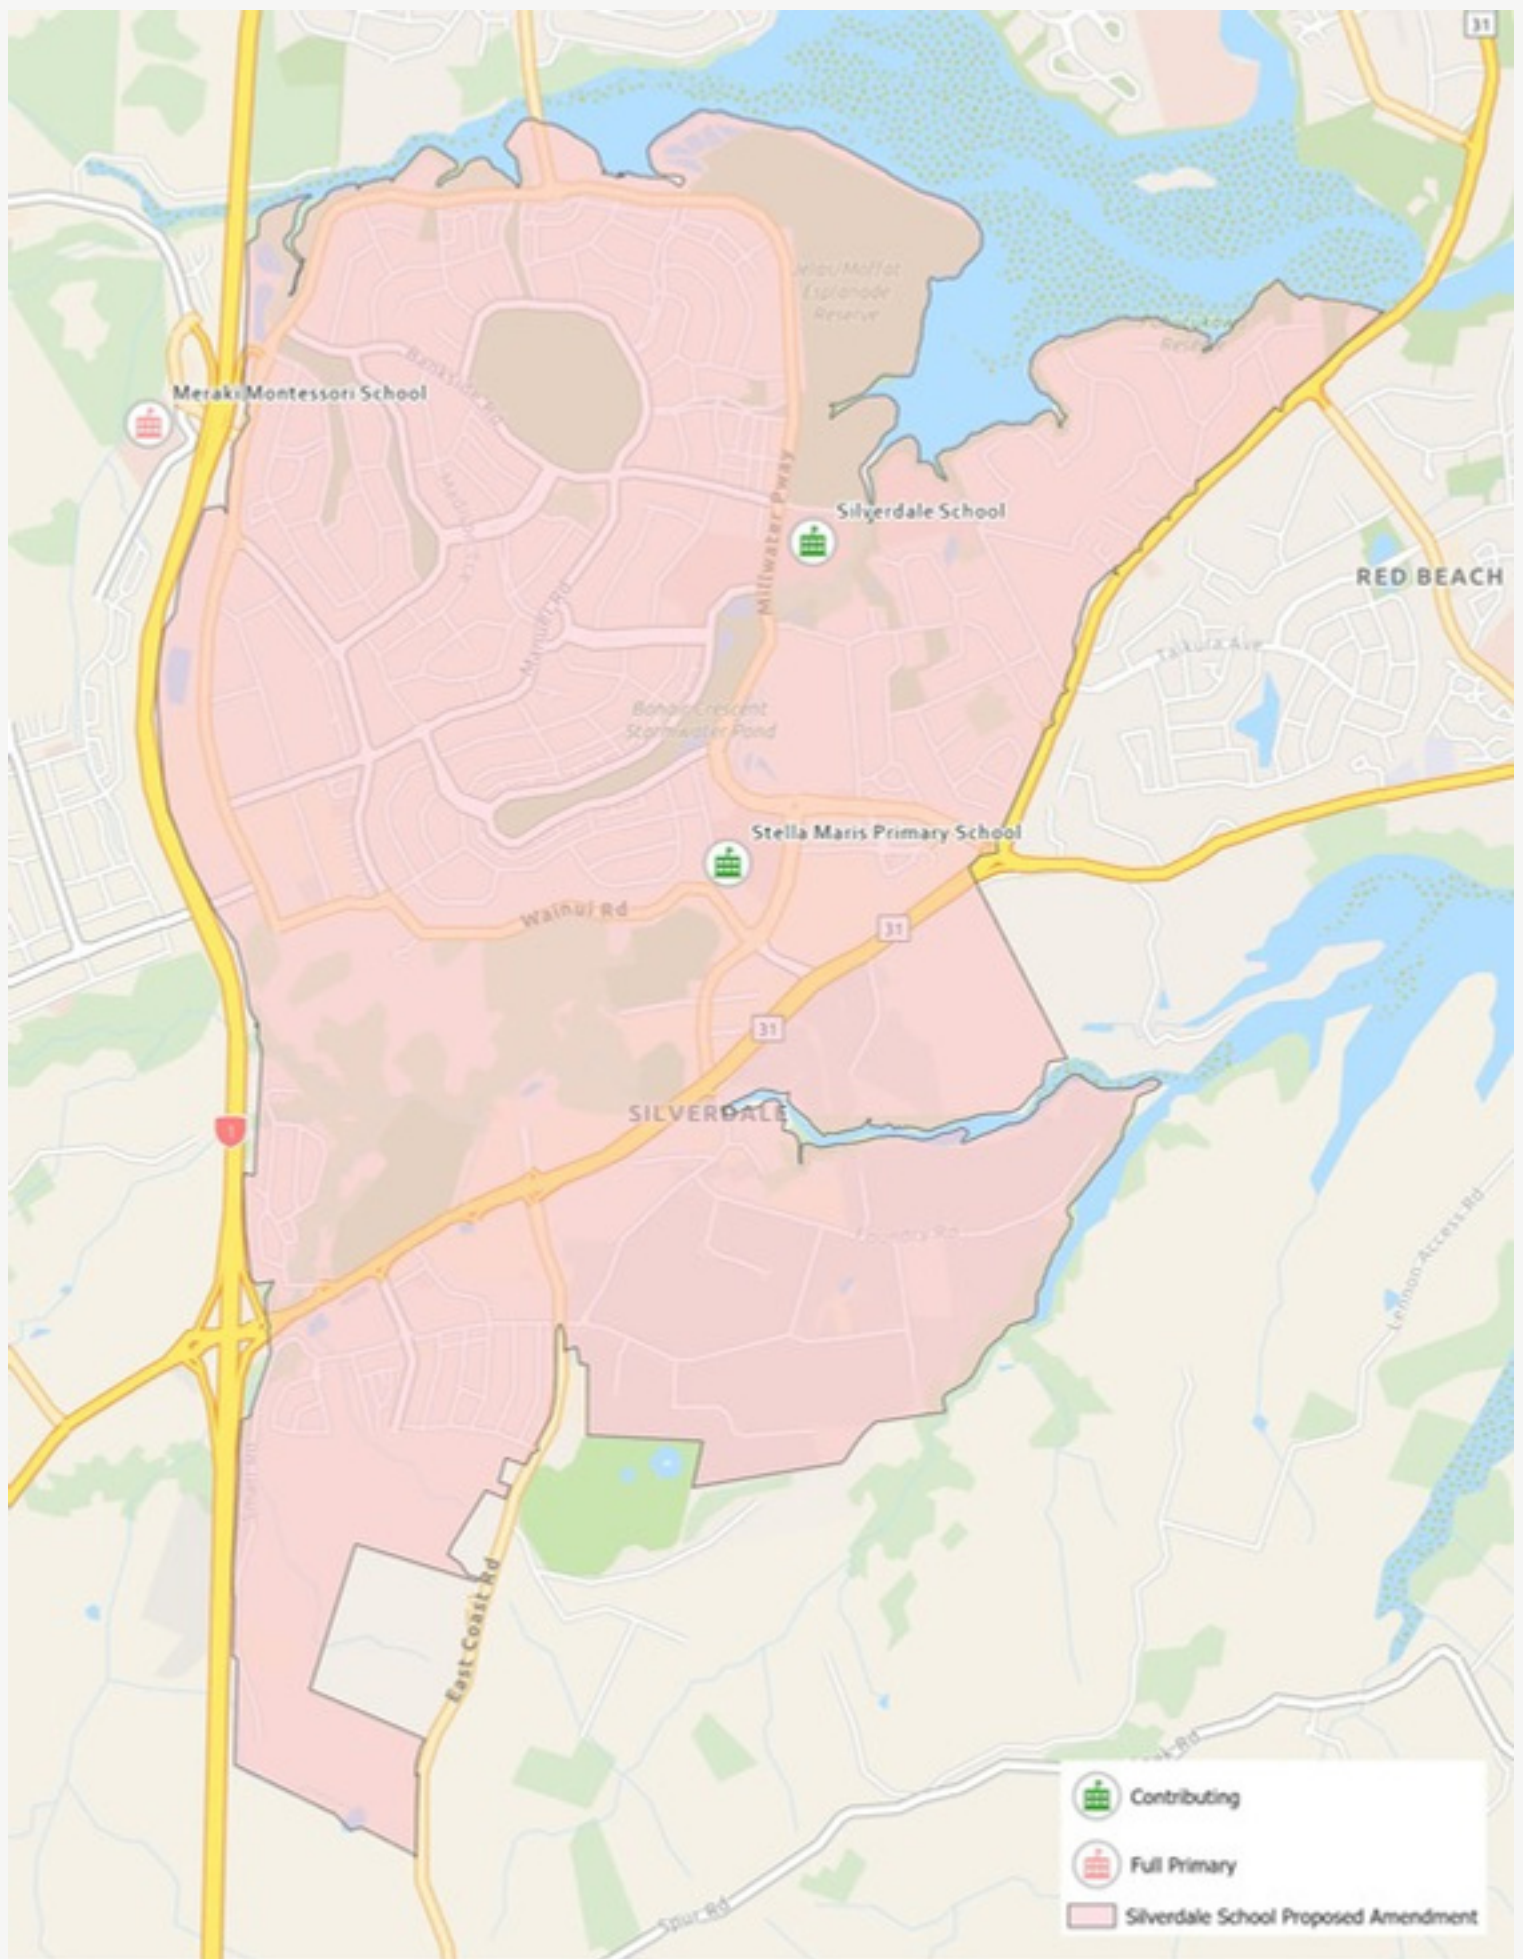

The proposed amendment to our school's enrolment zone is available here: Silverdale School proposed enrolment scheme amendment – Ministry of Education.

The Ministry of Education welcomes any feedback.

The amended enrolment zone of Silverdale School is to include an increase of the overlap or shared area between Silverdale School and Dairy Flat School zones around the East Coast Heights area.

All students who are already enrolled at Silverdale School and Dairy Flat School before a home zone is put in place or changed are entitled to stay at the school.

If approved, the changes will take effect from Term 1 2027.

KELLY CLUB SILVERDALE UPDATE

What's been happening...

Staff Choice was so much fun as we transformed cups into magical creatures for our Unicorn potion. We made funny face pizzas and had the best time playing games like grab the ball, dodgeball, hockey and lots more. Our kids loved going outside to play on the playground, running, jumping and hiding in plain sight.

WHAT IS PLASMA?

Plasma is the gold-coloured liquid component of blood that carries blood cells, water, proteins and clotting factors around your body.

WHAT IS IT USED FOR?

Plasma collected in NZ can be used to create up to 11 lifesaving blood products. They help to treat burn victims, kidney patients, chemotherapy patients, people who have lost a lot of blood or have had major surgery, and especially, boost the immune system of people who cannot make antibodies.

CAN I GIVE PLASMA?

You can as long as you:

- Are 16-70 years old
- Weigh a minimum of 50kg and are at least 150cm tall
- Meet the eligibility criteria in our donor questionnaire.

HOW IS GIVING PLASMA DIFFERENT TO GIVING BLOOD?

Donating plasma takes a little longer. With plasma, you're on the donation bed for about 60 minutes compared to 5-10 minutes for whole blood. In all, the whole process with plasma takes about 90 minutes. However, you're able to give plasma more often than blood. You can donate every 2 to 3 weeks, rather than every 3 months. This is because the apheresis machine separates your plasma from the whole blood, keeping only the plasma and returning the red cells (with all the iron) back into your body.

WHAT ELSE DO I NEED TO KNOW?

Before donating, you'll need to have something to eat and drink. It also helps to bring along a book or magazine, as plasma donations do take a bit more time. When you're done, you might not feel as tired as you would after a regular whole blood donation. That's because your red cells are returned to you after being separated from the plasma.
