How To Make a Jolly Jar

To make a jolly jar, find a clean, empty glass or plastic jar, remove any labels, and then fill it with a fun assortment of goodies like stickers, small toys, stationery, or wrapped lollies. Decorate the outside of the jar with ribbons, stickers, or other items to make it appealing. The finished jolly jar can then be brought to school for our Country Show Day to be sold.

Materials you'll need

- A clean, empty glass or plastic jar with a lid.
- Labels removed from the jar.
- Assorted small items to fill the jar.
- Decorations, such as stickers, ribbons, or paint.

Step-by-step instructions

- Gather your jar: Find a clean, dry jar (such as from jam, coffee, or other food items) and make sure all the labels are removed.
- Select your goodies: Choose a variety of interesting and fun items to put in the jar. For example:
 - Stickers
 - Small toys, like mini figures or Hot Wheels cars
 - Stationery, such as pencils, erasers, or mini notepads
 - Candies, chocolates, or other wrapped lollies
 - Hair accessories, like clips or ties
 - Craft bits or collector cards
- Fill the jar: Place your chosen goodies into the jar, making sure it is full and appealing.
- Decorate the jar: Add decorations to the outside of the jar with stickers, ribbons, or other embellishments.
- Deliver your jar: Bring your finished jolly jar to your classroom on Monday 12 October for our Country Show Day.
